Even though it was a bit cooler by now, and I was amongst the last trickle of finishers, there were still cheers for me coming in, and you get swept up into the welcome of the team, Running Nowhere-Running Scared do a final scan, remove your electronic tag and thrust you towards more coffee and cake. No one is expected to do any Running Nowhere-Running Scared or less than they would usually do and if following a training plan, should use this for their pledges and only do challenges that fit in with their plans. Then coming down through Limb valley in the evening dusk there were more messages of Smiley origin scrawled into the mud to keep me going til the end.
