This division between the majority native Irish Roman Catholics on one side and the Anglo-Irish Protestants on the other can be seen in a play such as The Big House which depicts the burning of a Protestant manor home by the IRA. The North-East has to be nationalised.

The TV3 crew came to Macroom on Tuesday 30th of April to interview the man and Col. Perhaps the solidity of the rocks around gave them a false idea of stability below their feet. James Moynihan was on the subs bench. He attempted to impress on de Valera the inevitability of dominion status within the Commonwealth, emphasising the British determination on the matter and drawing on South Africa's experience of this form of government.

An infallible indicator of the success of an amateur show is the enjoyment it gives. The Easter Week Rising pointed out the road.
