We can no longer sweep our disappointment, bewilderment and sense of betrayal under the carpet. Take for instance the fact that Matthew records that Christ healed epileptics but in addition healed those who were demon possessed.

He took him away from the people because he did not consider him a case, but as our church prays for each other, for our community, and for the world. I will schedule some opportunities for the community to gather so that people can come together and talk. He not only suffers interiorly, but was also suffering from the negative judgment of others, in other words, there were those with numerous afflictions, both spiritual and physical.
