The humor is pithy and nearly constant, but there's a good look into what was happening in Britain in the early days of World War II, which is entirely different from the picture most of us have of the US during the same period, since beyond Pearl Harbor, none of us had This is a very funny book. He may not have been bigger but he was older – he was at least two grades above me, stronger, and for sure more athletic. The small room was used for giving a select few an introduction to Latin; German or French.
