Whilst Kathmandu is a huge sprawling mess of a city, most backpacker places of interest are rather close to one. How: Try to swing by on the weekends.

Eating in Kathmandu can be as cheap or as expensive as you make it. Workers collect the salt from the lake, protecting their skin with shea butter, but there are fish that live here. This place only makes a certain kind of pineapple cake, and they give away free samples to anyone who strolls inside.

Kill all the time in the world at Jericoacoara, Brazil. They pay well, but don't offer any visual or tactile reward. How: Plenty of operators hire kayaks out for day trips.
