Works for me! Update: They turned out amazing with the jam! Thanks .

It sounds like she was using voiced dictation to enter the instructions. Glaze hardened to a flaky delicious glaze. For a dough that produces soft, light and fluffy rolls, it is strongly recommended that you measure ingredients, especially the flour, by weight using a kitchen scale, rather than measuring cups. This was actually what I was looking for, and I am glad to come here!

If I make them at night and want to bake them in the morning, do I let them rise the late mother was a brilliant cook and baker and she never measured anything but she did manage to write her most special recipes down for me and so I love to make her family recipes even though they never quite come out the exact way I remember. God bless you and your family.
