But the Taskforce—a clandestine team operating outside of US law to protect the country from terrorism—hears of an assassination attempt on the American envoy sent to solidify the treaty. Wellpaced.LatestpostsbyMichaelF. It looked official enough, the universal biohazard symbol followed by a host of precautions proclaiming its authority, but it was listing a bit to the side, the tape holding it in place losing adhesive in the humid air. Trained to exist on the ragged edge of human capability. ReturntoBookPage.That does not mean "The Widow's Strike" is a bad book, on the contrary, it's well researched, has the best setting and some fun action scenes but it is let down by a lack of gripping plot twists and character development, two things which have been the trademarks of the Pike Logan Saga and hence make it currently the weakest book in the series.
